Programmed Maintenance Services re-affirms advice to take no action in response to Spotless bid

Programmed Maintenance Services Limited (ASX:PRG), a leader in workforce, property maintenance and asset management services, today re-affirmed its advice to shareholders to take no action in response to Spotless' conditional unsolicited bid, following receipt of Spotless' Bidder's Statement.

'The board will review the Bidder's Statement in detail and then issue our formal response and recommendation. Meanwhile, we recommend that shareholders take no action in response to the bid,' said Mr Chris Sutherland, Managing Director. 'Shareholders should be aware that Spotless' bid is currently valued at significantly less than the value claimed in its Bidder's Statement. It is also highly conditional.'
