PROGRAMMED & PARTNERS AWARDED SCHOOL PPP CONTRACT IN NEW ZEALAND

The New Zealand Ministry of Education has awarded the Learning Infrastructure Partners consortium a 25 year contract to design, construct, finance and maintain the new Hobsonville Point primary and secondary schools.

The Learning Infrastructure Partners consortium consists of Morrison & Co., Hawkins Constructions and Programmed.

Programmed will provide facility management services for the 25 year operating term.

The facility management services includes whole of life building and asset maintenance, grounds maintenance, waste management, utilities services, cleaning and security.

The primary and secondary schools will accommodate 690 and 1,500 students respectively and deliver a modern learning environment that is inspiring to optimally support the Ministry's vision for education.

Programmed Group Managing Director Chris Sutherland said "This contract success is a key milestone for Programmed and expands further our strong presence in New Zealand."

The new primary school is scheduled to open at the start of 2013 and the secondary school is due to open at the start of 2014.
